BILL WHITE WON'T GIVE UP

MAUI'S COUNTY ORGANIZATION
UNWILLING TO DISBAND—SAD
EXPOSURES FOR SOME FAKES.

The island of Maui is in a state of mild insurrection according to advices received from Sheriff Baldwin, "county" sheriff Bill White having refused to surrender his office to the Territorial sheriff. As a result it was decided to send Deputy Sheriff Chillingworth to Maui to take the office by force if necessary, unless Baldwin succeeds in getting control.

As soon as the county act decision was given High Sheriff Brown, acting under instructions from the governor, sent messages by wireless to his island deputies, instructing them to take back the offices they had surrendered on January 4. This must have been a highly pleasing order to Sheriff Andrews of Hilo. Nothing was heard from him in reply, and it is supposed that he lost no time in ousting Keolanui and his deputies.

An answer was received from Sheriff Baldwin of Maui stating that White had refused to give up. The Maui board of supervisors was going to meet on Monday, said White, and he would wait and see what they did about it. An answer was sent to Baldwin telling him to go ahead and take hold anyhow and as no reply was received it was decided that Chillingworth had better go and take hold.

Maui's county government was entirely Home Rule. It is thought that there is a possibility that the new government will try to take an appeal from the decree declaring the county act void. By taking appeal to the United States Supreme court the decision here can be rendered null for the time being, and it is claimed that Maui might thus be able to run along as a county until a final decision came. At the same time the Territorial officials hold themselves responsible for carrying out the laws and for the arrest of criminals and detention of prisoners.

The sudden changes in government both on Hawaii and Maui brought out some startling changes of political color among certain job-chasers, who do not know where they are at now. When the Home Rule victory came on Maui, for example, various supposed Republicans said they had really been Home Rulers all the time. They wanted and secured Home Rule jobs, and now it is too late to resume the color of Republicans, so that under the restoration they cannot look for the old jobs.

Similar turnovers occurred on Hawaii. When Sheriff Andrews was defeated a number of men supposed to have been his supporters announced that they were not. They had really voted for the other man and supported him. The sudden resumption of office by Andrews was not at all anticipated. Some of Andrews' former deputies are said to have got jobs under Keolanui, who was a former Andrews deputy himself, on the strength of their having been "against Andrews all the time." Now hard times have come for the turncoats, and it is supposed that Andrews is having a lot of fun with the supporters who found out when he was beaten that they didn't support him.

ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL.

There will be Association football at the Makiki grounds tomorrow at 4:15 o'clock. The following are the teams: Malle Hmas—Goal, Belsor; full-backs, Harvey, R. Anderson; half-backs, A. T. Miles, J. C. McGill, O. Mayall; forwards, E. G. Munro, D. A. Mackintosh, J. Harwood, J. Laird, J. H. Piddes, Reserve, White.

Pacifics—Goal, Dunsenberg; full-backs, S. Beardmore, A. Guild; half-backs, J. Shaffer, J. Stokes, Beardmore; forwards, R. A. Churton, Blackman, J. Catterall, J. Smith, Henry.

Mr. Waldron will referee. From all accounts this promises to be a closely contested game, and it is anticipated that the combination play of the teams will come very close to that shown by the British jacks when they played here last. There was a large number of spectators at last week's match, and this game should draw even a bigger number. The kick-off is at 4:15 p. m. sharp.

CONTINENTAL FRENCH DINNER.

As announced last week the special series of French dinners are being continued at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel on Saturday evenings at 6:30. The third of these takes place tomorrow evening and Solomon's famous Hawaiian Quintette club will render all the popular Hawaiian airs. Society patrons need to notify the hotel office before noon tomorrow, for table reservation.

ALEMEDA MADE HER USUAL TRIP

ARRIVED ON TIME THIS MORNING FROM SAN FRANCISCO WITH TWO DAYS LATER MAIL.

On time to the minute the S. S. Alameda, Captain Dowdell, arrived this morning from San Francisco with two days later mail and news files. The vessel sailed from San Francisco last Saturday. She sighted the S. S. Sonoma and transport Sheridan both of which have arrived at San Francisco, and the S. S. America Maru. The Maru was sighted at 10 p. m. January 12 in Lat. 29 north, Long. 144.50 west. The Maru is expected to arrive in San Francisco today.

There was a strong trade wind with the Alameda the last two days. Captain Dowdell showed her down yesterday in order to hold the vessel to her regular schedule. She could have gotten in last night. She made the trip in 5 days and 18 hours. She brought 921 tons of freight for this place. She had only a fair sized list of passengers. Captain George H. Whitney and Carl F. Lehnert Federal inspectors of hulls and boilers arrived by the Alameda today to make their regular inspection of the vessels engaged in the inter-island trade.

George D. Clagett the secretary to the inspectors returned this trip. He did not come with them on their visit last year.

Frank H. Grace returned from Dawson City to visit his mother and sisters. G. H. Hellman a merchant of San Francisco arrived by the Alameda today on a business trip.

E. E. Paxton of Dillingham and company returned by the Alameda from a business trip to the mainland. Mr. Paxton's reported arrival by the Siberia Wednesday afternoon was an error as he did not get away by that vessel.

Frank J. Hare the postal inspector, arrived by the Alameda on official business.

E. A. P. Newcomb the architect returned after an extended absence on the mainland. His sister Miss S. L. Newcomb returned with him.

Mrs. George A. Ordway and child were returning Honoluluans.

Working For Iaukea

HOME RULERS THINK THEY CAN INFLUENCE TREASURER KEPOKAI TO APPOINT HIM.

A political move is on to have C. P. Iaukea appointed by Treasurer Kepoikai as Territorial Tax Assessor. The office is still held by Land Commissioner J. W. Pratt, who was supposed to have retired on January 4, but the county act decision knocking out all the county assessors, places all the island assessment bureaus back in the hands of the Territorial treasurer.

The appointment of a successor to Pratt lies with Kepoikai. He is friendly with Iaukea and the latter's supporters are urging his claims to the office. The trouble, however, is in the fact that Iaukea is not a Republican but a Home Ruler, while Kepoikai is a member of the Republican party. He was appointed treasurer as a Republican and has always affiliated with the party. For this reason, it is said he will refuse to appoint Iaukea. In Iaukea's behalf it is being urged that he was elected to the office on this island, but Republicans claim that this would not justify his being appointed by a member of a Republican administration, and that if Kepoikai appoints him Kepoikai will be practically leaving the party.

Regarding the possible appointment, the Independent last night, had the following:

"We wonder whether Kepoikai will now 'kowtow' to the committee instead of acting independently of such a combination and appoint those whom he will have to serve under his department. The situation is in his hands and we leave it there with him, trusting that he will act as a man will who has been thrown down by his party, and not play the part of a trick monkey to such an ungrateful party, who got him out of bed, so to speak, to save it from going to smash."

"Iaukea won't need to give a bond now."—Star.

"Indeed? Well, we rather guess he will give the same bond as did Tax Assessor Pratt, $20,000. Fish should not be made of one and fowl of another when both are in the same position, dear Stellar."

"We are now of the opinion that it is up to Treasurer Kepoikai to appoint those whom he will have as Assessors-in-Chief of the respective taxation divisions of the Territory. The popular will has been shown at the polls and we feel that it is the safest guide for one to follow and gauge himself accordingly."

DON'T LIKE OUR COUNTY BILL

The following cable was sent to Delegate Kuhio this morning:

"Delegate Kuhio: Administration urges pushing passage County Act. Particulars mail."

"ATKINSON."

Private advices received from Washington indicate that the Hawaiian county bill has very little chance in Congress. It is said to be the idea of influential members that the bill goes far beyond the intentions of those who framed the Organic Act in giving local self-government, and the act which the Supreme Court has just declared void is said to be disapproved by many members of both houses. It is believed that Kuhio will have a very up hill fight with the bill he is now urged to press.

There is talk of sending some one from here to assist the delegate in presenting the matter. At yesterday's conference of members of the Senate with the governor and secretary, Governor Carter was strongly urged to go. He stated, however, that in view of the local situation it was quite impossible for him to leave. Secretary Atkinson was proposed as the one to go if Carter cannot get away. In view of advices indicating that there is opposition unlikely to be overcome, it may be decided not to send anyone. The matter will be decided at the conference of the governor and on Monday, when nearly all the members of the Senate will be here.

The following letter has been received by the governor, showing action by the Republican county executive committee:

"Hon. Geo. R. Carter, Governor, Territory of Hawaii."

"Sir:—At a special meeting of the Executive Committee of the Republican County Committee for the County of Oahu, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"Resolved, that it is the sense of the Executive Committee of the Republican County Committee of Oahu, that the United States Congress be urged to pass the so-called 'Hatch Bill,' as introduced by Delegate Kalaniana'ole, and in case that said Bill shall fail to become a law, then the United States Congress be urged to re-enact the County Law of 1903, with the proviso that it may be amended in its terms by the Hawaiian legislature. Yours truly, 'E. C. PETERS, Secretary.'"

EXTRA SESSION NOT THE PLAN

BELIEF THAT THE ADMINISTRATION CAN PROCEED WITHOUT AWAITING ANDREW'S OPINION.

It is about settled that there will be no extra session of the legislature. There has been a striking expression of sentiment against it, and it is thought that the Territorial government will be able to proceed without it. Under either the six months' appropriation bill of the last session, or the appropriations of 1901 Governor Carter and Treasurer Kepoikai may proceed, it is thought.

Attorney General Andrews is engaged in the preparation of an opinion giving his rulings on the construction of section 54 of the Organic act. This is the section which provides for an extra session in case of failure to pass appropriations for necessary current expenses of the government. One such extra session has been held, it is claimed, by those who believe in using old appropriation bills, and the problem is therefore passed up to the executive department of the government. The opinion of Andrews, as the legal adviser of the government, will be followed in the matter.

On receiving the attorney general's opinion, Governor Carter will state how he intends to run the affairs of the government. It is thought by many that his powers as executive are sufficient to carry affairs along until the legislature meets again in regular session. In the meantime, however, Congress is being urged to make the county act effective.

The suggestion of an extra session has called forth a number of voluntary expressions of opposition to such a plan. There is a very strong sentiment against it and it is only urged by those who regard it as an unavoidable legal necessity. Several letters have been received by the governor giving expression to objections to calling the legislature.

HILL BELITTLES CANAL SCHEME. ST. PAUL, January 8.—Howard E. Hill, president of the Northern Pacific Railroad, was tendered a reception in the parlors of the Commercial Club tonight. About 200 business men of St. Paul were present, and a large delegation from the Minneapolis Commercial Club joined in the welcome to the new president of the Northern Pacific.

The most important of the many speeches made was that of J. J. Hill, in the course of which he referred to the Panama Canal as a good thing for a man who had an appetite for bananas. He said he would like it built, and it might be some good, but it would not help the people of the North much, even though they did pay part of the expense of building it.

CRUISERS MAKE QUICK VOYAGE

WASHINGTON, January 7.—Rear Admiral Evans, commander in chief of the Asiatic fleet which recently made a cruise from Yokohama to Honolulu, says that the cruiser squadron made twelve and a half knots and was obliged to drop the coiler because it was deficient in speed, and that the battleships could have increased the speed a knot or a half. As to the performance of the battleships under trying conditions of weather in the great Pacific swells the admiral has this to say:

"Heavy swells with practically no wind continued from the fourth day out until the third day before arriving at Honolulu, and I doubt whether at any time during my experience of forty-two years I have seen swells so uniformly high as was experienced. I estimate that the height from crest to hollow of the waves for about three days of this run, ranged as high as thirty feet, and the general average height of the swells would be at least twenty feet. The behavior of the battleships during this weather was particularly good, and their speed practically not at all hampered. The Oregon, considering her age and design, acted particularly well throughout the passage. During the entire trip the engines of none of the three battleships was stopped except for thirty minutes during the ceremony attendant upon the burial of one of the crew of the Wisconsin."

Secretary Moody complimented the officers and men of the fleet on the success of the trip.
